CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

2018 has been another great year for INTO. We made progress on all our external strategies (Family, Growth and Voice) and have continued to strengthen our internal capacity. A major success of 2018 has been a new partnership with the Helen Hamlyn Trust which will come to life in 2019 and will increase our ability to catalyse and grow the international family of National Trusts, and to develop and promote the charity's global messages more visibly.

In 2018, as over the last ten years, INTO has made significant progress towards our mission to 'promote the conservation and enhancement of the natural and cultural heritage of all nations for the benefit of the people of the world'. Our major constraint has been lack of resource. This new capacity building programme will enable us to increase our impact in working towards this mission.

The funding from the Helen Hamlyn Trust, beginning in January 2019 for three years, will enable INTO to firstly appoint a new Deputy Secretary-General who will be an additional energetic, persuasive and effective ambassador for INTO, and I'm delighted that Alexander Bishop has joined the team. Secondly, we will help our member organisations grow, develop their campaigns and share best practice, through our new Technical Assistance Programme (TAP-INTO) for which Alex will play a pivotal role. Lastly, we will increase our profile amongst prospective members, partner organisations, supporters and opinion formers, transmitting our and our members' messages about the importance of heritage to an ever wider audience.

As we look forward to welcoming Alex and prepare for the 18th International Conference of National Trusts in Bermuda, I have every confidence that 2019 will be another wonderful year for INTO! We couldn't do it without the support, engagement and trust of our INTO Members, Trustees, Secretariat volunteers, Amicus supporters, facebook friends, donors and acolytes - I look forward to working with you all again as we take INTO 'into the future'!

Catherine Leonard joined Rempart partners from Poland, Italy and France on stage in Paris to discuss the future of volunteer involvement in heritage.

We were delighted to be a part of the launch of the Kulturerbe Bayern Foundation in Munich in November, alongside INTO members from Gelderland, Scotland and Belgium.

The Saint Lucia National Trust welcomed colleagues from as part of their Small Grant Project to find alternative solutions to the management of Pigeon Island and the Maria Islands.

We held two side events at COP 24 in Poland and were joined by Ian Lumley of An Taisce at the workshop in the UK Pavilion on 14 December.

Secretary-General's Report

I have something of a love-hate relationship with our Annual Report. It feels like a big, onerous task, until I actually sit down to it. Then it is actually always a great pleasure to recall all the wonderful achievements of the previous year. 2018 has been no exception.

INTERNATIONAL NATIONAL TRUSTS
ORGANISATION

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Significant activities

This year, the Secretariat team has prioritised activities with the biggest impact on our ability to deliver INTO's mission. I believe that INTO's strength lies in the knowledge and skills of its member organisations. So we concentrated on projects that mobilise this vital resource, like the mentoring programme, small grants and sharing expert advice.

Our new big idea was a focussed programme to help get some of the smallest Trusts properly established, with fantastic processes, resources and governance. This might involve visits with other INTO members, mentoring, IT support or training. A little travel budget and a bit of Secretariat volunteer capacity can go a long way! I called this TAP-INTO (Technical Assistance Programme) and am delighted to say that a couple of projects are already underway (in Canada and Australia) and that we secured funding from the Helen Hamlyn Trust to incubate the programme.

There is always a danger of great things happening within a team or organisation that go unseen and therefore un-thanked. This year, the (mostly unpaid) Secretariat team has continued to deliver a great service to our members and I'm really proud of INTO's capacity to involve volunteers.

INTO's achievements are the results of the combined efforts of every individual, from our member Trusts to our Amici, social media supporters to major donors. Together we make a great team. Together we can make a difference for all of our INTO members, big and small, old and young, wherever they are in the world. Thank you for all that you do.

INTO's accomplishments in 2018

Our work is organised under four strategies, around which this report is structured:

Family

This strategy lies at the core of INTO. It's all about supporting our members in the achievement of their goals by providing opportunities to collaborate and share ideas, resources and skills, and developing a global heritage offer that celebrates what is unique and special about the National Trust approach. One of the key messages from the Bali conference was that INTO should continue to provide capacity building services that would grow and better equip the family of National Trusts, through training programmes, exchanges and resource sharing.

In July, expert volunteers, Donald Hankey and Kevin Hallaway went to Tbilisi to advise the National Trust of Georgia. The Trust has its first property but it is subsiding and in need of considerable attention. Kevin and Donald made a series of recommendations for the building's conservation, which the Trust, together with ICOMOS, is now taking forward.

They presented their experiences at an INTO workshop on 5 November alongside colleagues from the Czech Republic, Flanders and Romania.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Significant activities

Our 'Encourage African Youth' project came to a conclusion in 2018 with the awarding of prizes to the schools in Sierra Leone, Uganda and Zimbabwe who had shared moving video clips about their cultural heritage. It was perhaps even more heart-warming when pupils from the winning school in Sierra Leone visited Bunce Island for the first time to learn from the stories of slavery. Research Officer at the Monuments and Relics Commission, Francis Momoh said "As they marched through the ruins, the deafening silence reminded them of what might have transpired there some 350 years ago. Those who had tears shed them, those who had courage braved it, whilst those who are resilient expressed determination."

We awarded an INTO Small Grant to the Falkland Islands Museum and National Trust to develop their fundraising capability. The primary purpose of the Small Grant Programme is to build capacity and strengthen the sustainability of INTO members, and this ambitious project has helped ensure the Trust's financial sustainability and impact a large number of people.

Another way to support our members is through their fundraising efforts and in 2018 we finished our Arcus Foundation project with the Cross-Cultural Foundation of Uganda on Culture and Conservation of the Great Apes.

Our new Technical Assistance Programme (TAP-INTO) brings together all the elements of INTO's more tailored support delivered under the Family strategy over the past ten years into one place.

Lastly, families welcome each other and we have worked with our members on options for an INTO-managed reciprocal visiting programme to replace the ad-hoc arrangements currently in place. More to follow on this in 2019!

Growth

We understand the need for institution building and this year tightened up our growth strategy to focus on establishing new Trusts and growing the movement.

INTO unites people in their concern for the world's heritage. Its members care about special places and practices, as defined by their communities, protecting them for ever and for everyone. National Trusts and similar organisations are about connecting people to their heritage; about involving communities in their past (and their present) through caring for and about that inheritance.

Since its creation in 2007, INTO has furthered this movement across the globe, creating an international forum and working together to generate a new dialogue with decision makers and with each other. As the leading authority on the work of trusts worldwide and the focal point for the global movement, INTO is often called upon for advice on all aspects of setting up and running a National Trust.

We were delighted to be a part of the launch of the Kulturerbe Bayern Foundation in Munich in November. INTO had been involved in early discussions about the establishment of this 'Bavarian National Trust' and was able to encourage the founders who are now supported by 700 members and 170 volunteers, and have their first property! Kulturerbe Bayern became the newest member of INTO at the end of 2018!

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Significant activities

Setting up a National Trust is not something that happens overnight and we are working with a number of countries and organisations from Hungary to Portugal to Uganda. However, with our capacity building programme, we are committed to helping establish more new Trusts and building our membership numbers. The project will enable us to be more proactive in growing the INTO network and to use our Voice strategy to catalyse conditions that would make it easier to establish a National Trust.

The Petra National Trust also joined INTO in 2018 and we are delighted that their President, HRH Princess Dana Firas, will be addressing the INTO Conference in March 2019.

Voice

We believe in the importance of speaking out with authority and purpose on global conservation issues critical to INTO's membership. Delegates in Bali urged us to use our combined voice more often and more loudly.

At the start of the year we agreed to develop an evidence base underpinned by data, research and learning to support our advocacy work. We further clarified what we meant by 'Voice': communicating how the National Trust movement can help address urgent societal needs. Our paper on 'Heritage Conservation and the Sustainable Development Goals' provided a model for future documents. A collection of case studies from INTO members on a particular theme with an overarching message that we then share as internal learning (for INTO members to be inspired by what others are doing) and external advocacy (demonstrating what is unique and special about the National Trust approach).

On 8 March, we celebrated International Women's Day by featuring INTO's inspirational women on our website and social media. The profiles from amazing colleagues from Anguilla, Australia, Austria, France, Italy, New Zealand, Romania and St Helena - alongside figures from the movement's history from Bermuda and Zimbabwe - stimulated a lot of discussion and debate.

This year, we have continued to work in alliance with complementary international networks, institutions and groups like the Climate Heritage Mobilization, Global Ecovillage Network, BUILD, ICOMOS, UN-Habitat, World Monuments Fund Britain, World Travel and Tourism Council, Great British Oceans, amongst others.

We let two workshops at the UNFCCC's COP 24 in Poland in December, where delegates faced stark reminders of the ticking climate clock. "It does seem that INTO's recent paper on Heritage Conservation and the SDGs is particularly timely in the light of much of the debate at this COP where climate change and the SDGs are inextricably connected" wrote Oliver Maurice from Katowice.

In June this year, we began working on the EU-funded Innocastle Project which seeks to develop heritage friendly policies in the European regions. The benefits to INTO include expanded Secretariat capacity, showcasing the NT model, providing a focal point for INTO Europe, opportunities to travel, learn and share and inputting into policy development. We hope that Innocastle will be a model for sharing knowledge and experience that could be replicated in the future. INTO is participating in the project via the National Trust of England, Wales and Northern Ireland. The project is financed by Interreg Europe, with a total budget of €1,120,335.00 (85% ERDF, 15% co-financing).

Significant activities

This year we launched our Annual Survey of Excellence and the Jury met in December to select the 2019 Award winners, which will be bestowed at the Conference in Bermuda.

Strength

Our final strategy is based on strengthening INTO as an organisation by building financial sustainability and demonstrating best practice in our governance and organisational culture.

This year we finalised our internal restructuring as a 'Charitable Incorporated Organisation'. We opened a new bank account, executed the vesting declaration transferring the assets and liabilities and begun the wind-down process of the old entities (Charitable Company, INTO Foundation and Charter Organisation). The CIO framework offers three important advantages in that it allows membership of both incorporated and unincorporated organisations, which better reflects the diversity of the INTO membership; it simplifies administration, as we will have to report to only one regulatory body; and it makes the concept of INTO membership easier to administer and explain.

At the beginning of the year, we set out a new Business Plan and finalised a new funding partnership with the Helen Hamlyn Trust which will mean an increase in Secretariat staffing alongside greater visibility, funding and technical assistance over the coming three years.

We began recruiting our first very high-level 'INTO Ambassadors' to help us raise our profile among key stakeholders as well as current and emerging audiences, including major donors. By harnessing the influence of charismatic individuals who are willing to help us, we also hope to speak out more often and more loudly on global conservation issues.

Furthermore we have identified some new Secretariat volunteers and will strive to capitalise on the amazing experience, knowledge and generosity of our Trustees, the talented leaders of our great movement.

Over the past ten years, INTO's operations have grown in scale and impact. We have seen a simultaneous increase in complexity as our membership has more than trebled and our programme and activities increased. The Helen Hamlyn Trust grant will double our paid Secretariat capacity in 2019-2021 and the team will provide strategic leadership and oversight of operational, financial management, resource mobilisation, research, monitoring and evaluation and communication issues across INTO.

We've joined forces with the hotel booking site, Goodwings, who make a donation to essential INTO programmes every time people reserve through their site, making it possible for our supporters to turn their travels into something measurable and sustainable.

In 2018, we continued to benefit from the generous support of the National Trust of England, Wales and Northern Ireland (up to £100,000 per year in cash and in kind) covering four days a week of our Secretary-General's time; associated travel expenses; one day a week of business support; help and advice with fundraising and communications; legal costs; and a budget to enable National Trust staff to spend time with INTO member organisations.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Public benefit

The object of the Charity is to promote the conservation and enhancement of the natural and cultural heritage of all nations for the benefit of the people of the world. In shaping our objectives and planning our activities for the year, the Trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

At its most basic, heritage is what people value and want to hand on to future generations. The definition of heritage is very broad and it can cover everything from land and biodiversity, to buildings and landscapes, collections and intangible things like language and traditional practices. In fact, what makes something part of our heritage is not whether it is a building or a landscape, but the value we place on it.

INTO's role therefore in helping organisations protect and conserve heritage all over the world is inherently linked to public benefit. Because heritage is only heritage if it's of value to citizens.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The position of the charity at the end of the year is set out on page 15.

Reserves policy

The charity held total reserves at the year end of £134,718. Of these £26,432 of restricted funds were held.

Free reserves at the year end stood at £108,286 (2017 £70,558).

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

INTO is registered and regulated under UK law as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation Number 1175994. It is governed by its CIO Constitution and By-laws. It was registered with the Charity Commission (England and Wales) on 29 November 2017. These documents are available on the INTO website.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

As set out in its Constitution, the charity Trustees are appointed at the biennial INTO Congress. In advance of each Congress, each Full Member may nominate one or more individuals to be considered. The charity Trustees recommend individuals from amongst these nominations for appointment at the next Congress. They may also appoint Trustees between Congresses but a charity Trustee so appointed must retire at the next Congress, but may be nominated for re-appointment.

A charity Trustee may not hold office for more than three consecutive terms except where length of service includes time served as Chair or Vice Chair.

None of our Trustees receive remuneration or other benefit from their work with INTO.

GlobalGiving is the crowdfunding platform used for INTO's 'Encourage African Youth to Embrace Their Heritage' in 2017. The project finished in 2018 but we still receive small donations (to INTO general funds) via GlobalGiving.

ICNT is the International Conference of National Trusts, INTO's biennial conference that brings together the global family of National Trusts and similar heritage organisations in different locations around the world.

The INTO Foundation was established with a gift from the late Rodney Davidson AO, a long term supporter of INTO and the ICNT. Under the new governance structure, the INTO Foundation has been wound up and its assets transferred to the CIO.

The Small Grants Fund started in 2013 in response to INTO members' requests for small but catalytic grants for difficult to fund projects. In 2018, the programme was rolled into TAP-INTO, a travel grant programme supporting partnerships between INTO members.
